

Health and Safety Policy

Issue II, Kamienna Góra, 1. December 2017

Introduction:

This policy will be applied to the company Świat Lnu Sp. z o.o.
in Kamienna Góra.

The Management of the Company is aware of the hazards present at the workplace, it is the aim of maintaining a high standard of occupational health and safety, health protection and social conditions of its employees. It ensures the quality of the services provided, while eliminating workplace risks and prevention of accidents at work and near-misses, it undertakes to set and maintain high standards for the protection of the working environment.

Management has set strategic objectives:

- Compliance with legal requirements in the areas of safety and health at work and protection of fire protection;
- The minimized number of accidents at work, occupational diseases and potentially accident events;
- Striving to continuously improve health and safety conditions at work.

These objectives are to be achieved by:

- Continuous improvement and enhancement of the skills of employees in occupational health and safety and fire protection issues; strive to continuously improve working safety conditions in workstations by implementing new technical, technological and organizational solutions;
- Prevention of occupational accidents, occupational diseases and potentially accident events;
- Using the ideas and applications of employees and involving them in the field of health and safety at work and fire protection;
- Providing the technical, human and financial resources necessary to implement this policy on health and safety at work;
- Conduct business in a manner that complies with legal and other health and safety requirements and rules;
- Continuous awareness-raising of management and employees, involvement of all employees in the responsibility for the safety of their employees and their colleagues;
- Continuous improvement of the effectiveness and efficiency of the safety and fire protection management system;
- All activities undertaken in the fields of safety, hygiene, health of employees and fire protection shall be agreed and carried out with the employees or their representatives.

The Management Board of the Company undertakes to allocate appropriate resources for the implementation of health and safety objectives and ensures that this health and safety policy is known, understood and followed by all employees of the Company.

This policy is generally available to all interested parties inside and outside the Company.